

pro tem. to receive such money.

It was then moved, seconded, and carried that a Committee of three be appointed to draft a Constitution and By-Laws. The Chairman appointed E. Francis, H. J. B. Van Bergen, and O. D. Shepherd as that Com.

The naming of the Society next came up for consideration and on motion of Geo. D. Couch Esq., it was decided that it should be known by the name, style, and title of "The Young Men's Library Association of Carbondale."

A short discussion now arose in regard to the number of Directors to be elected to conduct the affairs of the Association but it was finally decided to leave the whole subject of permanent organization till after the report of the Com. on Constitution and By-Laws, who were empowered to arrange the entire organization according to the best of their judgment and ability.

On Motion a committee to prepare a catalogue of good books and submit it to the next meeting, was then appointed by the chair. The gentlemen who constituted this Com. were the Rev. R. B. Put, Rev. E. D. Bryan, E. E. Hendrick Esq., J. W. Aitken Esq., E. M. Peck Esq., O. D. Shepherd Esq., B. R. Blaine, and Geo. D. Couch Esq.

It was regularly moved and carried that a Com. of three be appointed to obtain and prepare rooms for the receipt and proper arrangement of the library. O. D. Shepherd, E. A. Wheeler (Orchard), Esq., constituted the Com.

The meeting then adjourned till Monday evening March 9th 1874. at 7 P.M.
